The Class of 2013

DEDICATES

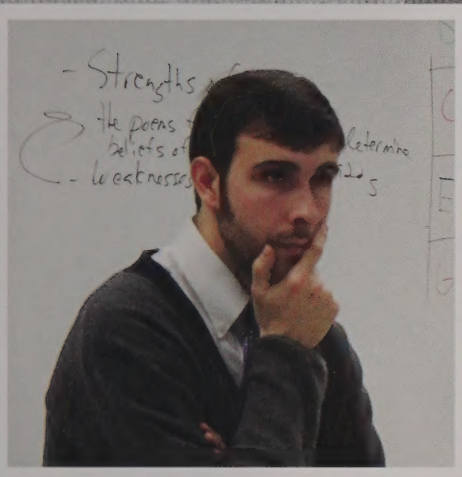
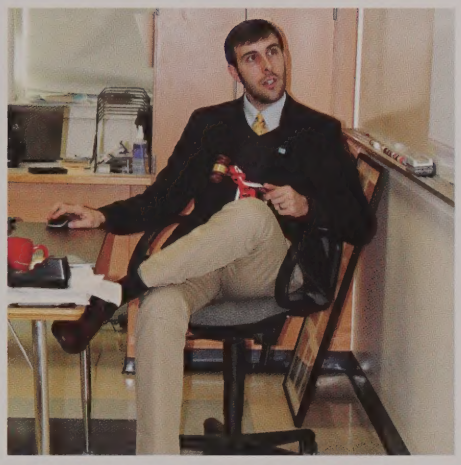
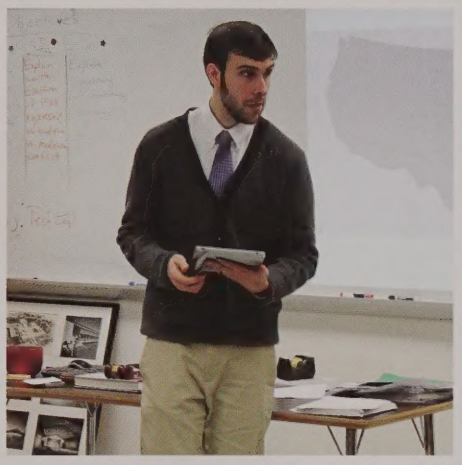
to an exceptional teacher, mentor, and advisor, Mr. Miskinis.







Mr. Miskinis came to LHS in the fall of 2009, our freshman year. In the spring of 2011, he was named "Teacher of the Year," solidifying his legendary status. We thank Mr. Miskinis for providing us with an outstanding education in US History, a scholarly vocabulary for dinner parties, and for the adventurous journey he took with us as our fearless class advisor.

"Every good citizen makes his country's honor his own, and cherishes it not only as precious but as sacred."

I leave Andy MacGregor track jokes, AP Physics, and an amazing senior year. - Kristen Vilcans
To Baby Staples I leave the secret circle and ALL of the Disney songs. Alyssa - do not forget to feed my cats. I worry about this. - Ginny Walker
I leave Eloquence Dance Centre to be represented by Carrie Randall and Sam Yates. I love you ladies! Elena I leave you one more year of high school! Go hard, thanks for everything <3 - Leanne Warren
The trumpet section shall be bestowed with the Holy Grail of Blue Juice left by Shneep. - Doug White
To Sam I leave the family name, to continue to dishonor. I sincerely hope you constantly embarrass yourself regularly… and love every minute of it, because life is too short to be, or even define, what "cool" is. To Samantha I leave the love to hate running and winter track. To Brett… I leave nothing. I'm not really sure who that girl is, anyway. But I guess you should take The Cage and all its inhabitants, but keep the glass and rope under wraps. - Hayley Yates

LOVE YOU GRANDMA
You tought me so much in life. How to love, dream, and keep my head up even during the hardest times. And thats what you did all throughout your 3 month fight. You will never be forgotten as the strong, amazing woman, mother, and grandmother that you were. The happiness you brought to my life, and many others will never be forgotten. Life is not the same without you, but nothing can ever take away what you did for me. You are my greatest inspiration, and you are always in my thoughts. Rest in peace now, and forever. We will find a cure... For you grandma
